

ARCHDIOCESAN ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS Recommended Reading 2022

Dear Administrators, Librarians and Teachers,

Following is the list of recommended books for the 2022-2023 school year. This list includes titles and descriptions of books approved for summer reading and for reading during the school year. Teachers should not assign books for a class to read unless they are listed on this document or a previous listing of approved books.

The titles on this list will also be used for the Diocesan Reading Olympics next year. We are providing the lists at this time so that students can begin their reading during the summer.

It is important to remember that, when selecting titles from the recommended list, teachers should please pre read books before assigning them to students. Some books may be better suited as directed or guided reading and not read alone. While every effort has been made to recommend quality literature, it is important that a teacher is prepared to respond to any questions that may arise.

You should inform parents that all books are available at Amazon, Barnes & Noble, and Books a Million stores

We are most grateful to the Media Arts Committee for their time and effort in preparing this document and to this committee and the ELA committee who are preparing the Reading Olympics. If you are interested in assisting in this activity, please let me know.

Know we are grateful for all you do. God bless you!

Sister Edward Williams, J.S.M.

27 Magic Words by Sharelle Byars Morganville Although Kobi's parents sailed into a storm five years ago, she believes they are alive, and when she is sent from her grandmother's luxurious Paris apartment to live with an uncle in Iowa, Kobi tells lies that soon catch up with her. ©2016 Grade Level 5–7

Aim* by Joyce Moyer Hostetter As World War II threatens the United States in 1941, fourteen-year-old Junior Bledsoe fights his own battles at home. Junior struggles with school and with anger—at his father, his insufferable granddaddy, his neighbors, and himself—as he desperately tries to understand himself and find his own aim in life. ©2016 Grade Level 5–7

Because of Mr. Terupt* by Rob Buyea It's the start of fifth grade for seven kids at Snow Hill School. There's Jessica, the new girl, smart and perceptive, who's having a hard time fitting in; Alexia, a bully, your friend one second, your enemy the next; Peter, class prankster and troublemaker; Luke, the brain; Danielle, who never stands up for herself; shy Anna, whose home situation makes her an outcast; and Jeffrey, who hates school. ©2011 Grade Level 4-6

Bob* by Wendy Mass It's been five years since Livy and her family have visited Livy's grandmother in Australia. Now that she's back, Livy has the feeling she's forgotten something really, really important about Gran's house. ©2019 Grade Level 5-6

The First Rule of Punk* by Celia C. Pérez There are no shortcuts to surviving your first day at a new school—you can't fix it with duct tape like you would your Chuck Taylors. On Day One, twelve-year-old Malú (María Luisa, if you want to annoy her) inadvertently upsets Posada Middle School's queen bee, violates the school's dress code with her punk rock look, and disappoints her college-professor mom in the process. 2018 Pura Belpré Author Honor Book ©2018 Grade Level 5–7

Girls Who Code: Learn to Code and Change the World* by Reshma Saujani The world's first coders were women. Pioneers such as Grace Hopper and Ada Lovelace helped shape the programming landscape as we know it today — and yet, according to recent research from Stack Overflow, only 7.7 percent of developers in the United States are women. ©2017 Grade Level 5-6

Gone Crazy in Alabama* by Rita Williams-Garcia Delphine, Vonetta, and Fern are off to Alabama to visit their grandmother Big Ma and her mother, Ma Charles. Across the way lives Ma Charles's half-sister, Miss Trotter. The two half-sisters haven't spoken in years. As Delphine hears about her family history, she uncovers the surprising truth that's been keeping the sisters apart. Coretta Scott King Award ©2016 Grade Level 5–7

The Last Fifth Grade of Emerson Elementary* by Laura Shovan Emerson Elementary is closing its doors and is due to be replaced by a shopping mall. Not everyone in this multiracial fifth-grade class feels the same about the school's imminent closure. The variety of expressive writing styles for each character makes this book unique. ©2016 Grade Level 5–7

One Crazy Summer* by Rita Williams-Garcia Eleven-year-old Delphine is like a mother to her two younger sisters, Vonetta and Fern. She's had to be, ever since their mother, Cecile, left them seven years ago for a radical new life in California. ©2011 Grade Level 5–7, 2012 Newbery Honor Book, Scott O'Dell Award, and Coretta Scott King Award

Prairie Lotus* by Linda Sue Park A girl determined to fit in and realize her dreams: getting an education, becoming a dressmaker in her father's shop, and making at least one friend. Hanna, a half-Asian girl in a small town in America's heartland, lives in 1880. Hanna's adjustment to her new surroundings, and the townspeople's prejudice against Asians, is at the heart of the story. ©2020 Grade Level 5–6

Saving Winslow* by Sharon Creech Louie doesn't have the best luck when it comes to nurturing small creatures. So when his father brings home a sickly newborn mini donkey, he's determined to save him. He names him Winslow. ©2019 Grade Level 5-7 ALA Notable Children's Book, Texas Bluebonnet Award Winner

Serafina and the Black Cloak* Robert Beatty The story of a brave and unusual girl who lives secretly in the basement of the grand Biltmore Estate amidst the splendor of the Gilded Age and the rugged beauty of the Blue Ridge Mountains.
